

The Introduction of Main Characters

Uncle Kun, A-Long's dad, is a fisherman. He has strong feeling to the past time, he especially remembers the time of serving in Te-Yang Naval Vessel. He also has researched Anping history deeply.

A-Long, a student in the second grade of Simen Elementary School, lives in Anping of Tainan City. He is curious, naive, and interested in asking questions. He respects the great people very much.

Hamada was a Japanese captain in the 17th century. To the pirates and the Dutch traders, he had his own opinion different from the others. He was brave and excellent in using strategies, so he was a great help to Japan.

Captain Che, the captain of Te-Yang Naval Vessel, led soldiers to serve in the naval vessel. With the characteristic of calm and boldness, he is excellent in solving problems.

Tonny is a coach of sailing boats, who is enthusiastic about the sailboat sport and enjoys steering the boat around the world. He is bold and generous; never hesitate to encourage other people.